

Ag 2 RFE
X Pers 2 Med SMITH

Smith To Head RFE Unit

Fund Campaign Gets Underway

McGregor Smith, chairman of the board of Florida Power and Light Co., has been appointed 1962 Florida chairman of the Radio Free Europe Fund, succeeding Claude J. Yates, vice president of Southern Bell Telephone Co.

All funds collected in the annual drive are used to send un-

SMITH distorted news and information to five iron-curtain countries — Czechoslovakia, Poland, Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria, which have a total of 80 million people.

Serving with Smith are the following area chairmen:

Miami, Robert M. Morgan, accountant; Tampa - St. Petersburg, Fred D. Leary, president of General Telephone Co.; Jacksonville, W. Thomas Rice, president of Atlantic Coast Line Railroad; Orlando, C. Peter Hewitt Jr., president of Florida National Bank; Sarasota, John Flite Robertson, of Robertson and Robertson; Fort Myers, Harry Fagan, president of First National Bank; Fort Lauderdale, Earl O. Shreve, retired vice president of General Electric, and West Palm Beach, Charles H. Warwick III, attorney.

Other committee members include James A. Ryder, president of Ryder Systems Inc., Miami; George S. Bradshaw, first vice president and treasurer of the American Fire and Casualty Co., Orlando; Frank W. Norris, president of Barnett National Bank, Jacksonville, treasurer; Attorney General Richard W. Ervin, State employees chairman; Mrs. M. Lewis Hall, Coral Gables, president of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs, and Joseph L. Brechner, president of WLOF-TV, Orlando.